

Nezih Barut

Nezih Barut, the Chairman of Abdi Ibrahim Ilac Sanayi ve Ticaret A.S. was born in 1952 and graduated from Istanbul University Faculty of Pharmacy in 1976. Same year he started his career in Abdi Ibrahim Pharmaceutical Factory founded by Abdi Ibrahim in 1912.

Barut, who took over management of Abdi Ibrahim Pharmaceuticals in 1981, served in various positions at different levels such as Production Manager, Assistant General Manager and General Manager, in a period of over 30 years.

Nezih Barut, who initiated the institutionalization process of Abdi Ibrahim Pharmaceuticals, also undertakes the mission of developing the pharmaceutical industry by serving in the positions of the Chairman of Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association of Turkey (IEİS). His other memberships include Istanbul Chamber of Pharmacists, Istanbul Chamber of Commerce (ITO), the 1907 Fenerbahce Foundation and Fenerbahce Sports Club. He is also the first Turkish businessman who was awarded The Prince Hendrik's honorary medal in 2008 by the Denmark Export Association.

Nezih Barut is a fluent English speaker who is married and a father of a son.